Hickory Hill

Whether you are looking for a vacation cabin, a lodge, or just a getaway retreat, the Hickory Hill from Conestoga offers you a charming but practical solution.

Our cabins offer all the rustic charm of log living with the best of engineered wood to provide a uniquely crafted expression of your dream cabin. Our kiln-dried, laminated Everlast™ logs, weather tight interlocking corners and structurally superior laminated roof beams make the Hickory Hill a durable, low maintenance log structure that will last for generations.

Conestoga offers a wide selection of log cabin and log home floor plans. We have experienced Project Consultants who know cabins and understand the issues you face as you permit and build your log cabin. Our in-house design staff can work with you to develop the right plans for your needs, and your local building codes. The kits we sell are one of the most complete kits in the industry--at very affordable prices.
