Cabela's Boulder Lodge

14'7" x 20 ft. with 6-ft. porch

Perfectly sized for weekend retreats with family, the Boulder Lodge is affordably priced, easy to assemble and has space for all the amenities of home. The sleeping area will comfortably accommodate up to four people. Plus, a large living area, bathroom and kitchen area give you ample room to spread out and get comfortable. A loft above the bathroom keeps gear and extra supplies handy but out of the way when not in use. 6-ft. x 20-ft. front porch is fully covered. Choose either a three-room or one-room model that opens up the entire interior of the cabin. Both have five windows. Roof peak height: 12'5".

Spruce up your cabin with our

Foundation Kit
The pier foundation kit lets you build your cabin on uneven ground. Also works where the ground's integrity cannot support the cabin directly or where erosion may be a concern. Increases ground clearance for access to plumbing and wiring. Kit includes: 6" x 6" posts, 2" x 12" header boards and nails. Quantity of components varies depending on cabin size.
